ALMA MATER

Pure as the dawn on the brow of thy beauty
Watches thy soul from the mountains of God
Over the Fates of thy children departed
Far from the land where their footsteps have trod.
Beacon of Hope in the ways dreary lighted;
Pride of our hearts that are loyal and true;
From those who adore unto one who adores us—
Mother of Mothers, we sing unto you.

We, with our faces turned high to the Eastward Proud of our place in the vanguard of Truth, Will sing unto thee a new song of thanksgiving—Honor to God and the Springtime of Youth. Shout for the victory or tear for the vanquished; Sunshine or tempest thy heart is e'er true; Pride of the hills and the white-laden Lowlands—Mother of Mothers, we kneel unto you.

Ever the Legions of Sin will assail us,
Even the Battle in Cities afar;
Still in the depth will thy Spirit eternal
Beckon us on like a piloting Star.
Down the dim years do thy dead children call thee,
Wafted to sleep while the Springtime was new;
We, of the Present, thy Hope of the Future—
Mother of Mothers, we pray unto you.

THE UNIVERSITY MACE AND BATONS

The mace and batons are symbols of the authority and history of the University and are made from balusters from the original main staircase of Old Main, erected in 1875, the oldest University building now standing. The batons are carried by members of the faculty who are serving as marshals.

MARSHALS' GOWNS

The gowns worn by the marshals are of the traditional University color, cardinal red.

HONOR STOLES

White or cardinal stoles denote students who are candidates for University Honors. Cardinal represents Honors (cum laude) and white represents High Honors (magna cum laude). White stoles with cardinal and white cords represent Highest Honors (summa cum laude).

THE UNIVERSITY SONG

In 1909 a prize of fifty dollars was offered for the best poem relating to the University of Arkansas that should be capable of being set to music and used as a college song. Out of many entries, that of Mr. Brodie Payne, '1906, of Hot Springs won the prize. The words were set to music by Professor H. D. Tovey, Director of the Conservatory of Music and Art at the University.

ACADEMIC REGALIA

The styles of gowns differentiate degree level. Trim of doctoral gowns indicates nature of degree (black or royal blue — Ph.D.; light blue — Ed.D.). Certain members of the faculty wear distinctive gowns and hoods authorized by their doctoral institutions. The lining of the hood denotes the color(s) of the institution awarding the degree. The official colors of the University of Arkansas are cardinal and white.

The color of the velvet band around the hood designates the academic degree of the wearer. Some examples are listed below:

THE UNIVERSITY SEAL

The Seal of the University of Arkansas is affixed to each diploma and is stamped in gold on each diploma cover. The central element in the Seal is the front entrance to Old Main, the oldest building on campus.

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENT

Governor Mike Beebe Honorary Doctorate of Laws, LL.D.

Mike Beebe was born to a single mother in a tarpaper shack in Jackson County, Ark., in 1946. He and his mother lived in many different places around the country as he grew up, finally settling in Newport when he was a teenager. He took full advantage of this new stability, attending Newport High School, learning from members of the community who chose to mentor him, and working at a local grocery store to help support his mother and himself. After graduation he took advantage of an Arkansas Rural Endowment Fund to attend Arkansas State University. He graduated in 1968 with a 4.1 grade point average.

Beebe enrolled in the University of Arkansas School of Law while also serving in the U.S. Army Reserves. He graduated in 1972 with a Juris Doctor and joined the Searcy law firm of Lightle, Tedder and Hannah. He was appointed to the Arkansas State University Board of Trustees in 1974, at the age of 26, and served a five-year term, the last two years as chairman.

Beebe was elected to the state Senate in 1982, beginning a 30-year career in state government. He served 20 years in the Senate, before the term limit law forced him out of office. In that time he became an expert on state budget matters, state policy regarding children, education and economic development, and, perhaps most important, the legislative process. He was instrumental in writing legislation for ARKids First, extending Medicaid coverage to the children of low-income working parents, and worked with Republican Gov. Mike Huckabee to win its passage.

When the state term limit law forced him to leave the Senate, Beebe was elected Arkansas attorney general in 2003 and served one term, focusing on child safety and law enforcement issues. He was elected governor in 2007 and is now finishing his second and final term.

As governor, Beebe combined his legislative expertise, his willingness to work in a bi-partisan manner and his passion to improve the lives of all Arkansans to work with the state legislature to achieve an unprecedented number of major accomplishments, including:

- Reduction of the state sales tax on groceries from 6 percent to 1.5 percent with the potential to reduce it to one-eighth of 1 percent.
- Creation of a statewide trauma care system
- Increased funding for pre-kindergarten programs
- Greatly improved rankings for K-12 education
- Establishment of a college scholarship program for low-income students
- Increased support for higher education, particularly research funding.

In 2011 Beebe was named Public Official of the Year by Governing magazine. He also received the Chancellor's Medal from the University of Arkansas in 2008, and the Distinguished Alumnus award from the Arkansas Alumni Association in 2009.

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENT

Anita Huffington Honorary Doctorate of Fine Arts, D.F.A.

Anita Huffington was born in Baltimore in 1934, attended the University of North Carolina, Bennington College and the University of South Florida, before receiving a Bachelor of Arts and Master of Fine Arts in sculpture from the City College of New York. She originally came to New York City in the late 1950s to study dance with Martha Graham and Merce Cunningham. She became acquainted with a diverse and individualistic group of painters, sculptors, musicians and poets during this time. She gradually found her interest in human form shifting away from dance, influenced by classical sculpture and stimulated by the ideas she encountered in the New York art world. After many years she and her husband left the city, seeking a greater connection to nature. In 1977 they found a haven in the Arkansas Ozarks, near Winslow, and her new home and surroundings became a prime source for artistic inspiration. This mixture of experiences helped Huffington find her own path as a sculptor.

Huffington works in stone, bronze, wood and mixed media. Her work reflects both the world of art and the spirit of nature.

She has exhibited her work around the country, both in one-person shows and as part of group exhibitions. Her sculptures are part of the permanent collection of Crystal Bridges Museum of American Art, the Arkansas Arts Center and the Metropolitan Museum of Art. Three of her works, "Spring," "Rebirth" and "Earth," are on permanent display at the University of Arkansas.

Huffington was awarded a fellowship in 1992 by the Arkansas Arts Council, was given a residency by France's La Napoule Art Foundation in 1996, was honored with the Jimmy Ernst Award in 1997 for her lifetime artistic contributions, and received the Governor's Individual Artist Award in 2005.

"My sculpture is my response to nature and art," Huffington has written. "There is a long struggle to develop the skill and vision that allows the freedom for a spontaneous response. It is based on intimate experience with the sensual, tactile images of life but not solely dependent on the visible. Working through the known to the unknown, I use the human form and sometimes animals to penetrate the mystery and express spirit.

"My sculpture has always been a composite and synthesis of elements drawn from nature and the history of art. With sandstones in particular (perhaps affected by their rude nature), I seem to move backward through time from classical, to archaic, to prehistoric to the unknown form in the formless. Through more and more reduction, down to elemental forces of rock and earth, I seek a unity that expresses something more than the visible."

COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

Lewis E. Epley, Jr.

Over a 50-year career which combined law, banking, business, and public service, Lewis Epley, Jr. served on a number of education, banking, business, non-profit, and corporate boards. Among his service was a 10-year term on the University of Arkansas Board of Trustees which included two years as Chairman. He also served as Chairman of the Board of the Eureka Springs Hospital for many years. In May of 2013, he retired from the board of Southwestern Energy

Company in Houston, Texas, after 15 years of service. He has served as a Director of Cornerstone Bank (formerly Bank of Eureka Springs) for 50 years and currently serves as Vice Chairman.

Through his public service, Mr. Epley has been honored with many awards, including the Arkansas Hospital Association Distinguished Service Award, the University of Arkansas for Medical Sciences Chancellor's Award, the University of Arkansas, Fayetteville Chancellor's Medal and Honorary Doctor of Laws degree (in addition to his two other degrees from the University of Arkansas), as a 1988 outstanding alumnus of the University of Arkansas School of Law, and the 2011 Fred Vorsanger Service Above Self Award from the Rotary Club of Fayetteville. In recognition of his many years of support and service to the University of Arkansas Band programs the Band Building was named the Lewis E. Epley, Jr. Hall by the University of Arkansas Board of Trustees in 1997. Recently, the UA Board of Trustees named a new building the Epley Center for Health Professions, which houses the university's Speech and Hearing Clinic and the Eleanor Mann School of Nursing. His wife Donna had a 30-year career as a registered nurse.

Mr. Epley is a Past President of the Eureka Springs Arkansas Rotary Club. He spearheaded the effort that led to the Rotary Club of Fayetteville winning the Large Club Polio Challenge and as a result was the 2011 Polio Challenge Team Leader to the National Polio Immunization Day in Chandigarh, India.

Mr. and Mrs. Epley have been married for 52 years and reside in retirement at the Butterfield Trail Retirement Village in Fayetteville, where Mr. Epley serves on the board and continues his public service in many other capacities including with the University of Arkansas Foundation, Inc. Board of Directors and its Executive Committee. For more than a decade Mr. Epley has presented his Polio Program to Rotary Clubs in north Arkansas, southern Missouri, and at Rotary 6110 District Conferences, too, where he tells his polio story and encourages Rotarians and Rotary Clubs to continue giving and raising money for the eradication of polio in the world.

OUTSTANDING ALUMNI AWARD

Dr. Bernard D. Murphy 2014 Outstanding Alumni Award

Bernard D. Murphy serves as president of the Jones-Hamilton Co., an employee-owned chemical company in Walbridge, Ohio, with markets in food, pet food, poultry, steel, water treatment, oil and gas. Murphy worked internationally for seven years supporting the development and marketing of animal health products around the world. His career has been closely aligned with the poultry industry, managing businesses related to nutrition, primary genetics, processing, food safety and environmental quality.

Murphy was raised on a small farm in Maryland and received his Bachelor of Science degree in Animal Science from the University of Delaware in 1975. After working for several years he returned to school to earn a Master of Science degree in Poultry Science in 1978 from the University of Arkansas and a Ph.D. degree in Poultry Products and Meat Science in 1986 from Iowa State University.

Murphy was a charter member of the University of Arkansas Poultry Science Alumni Group. He is also the first Executive in Residence in Bumpers College. He was instrumental in the development and ongoing support of the Jones-Hamilton Co. Environmental Research Poultry Facility at the University of Delaware. Murphy's interest in promoting the opportunities in the poultry industry and fostering a strong network for students led him to develop travel grants for students who attend the annual poultry science professional meetings. Murphy is also an adjunct member of the Poultry Science Department at Texas A&M University.

YOUNG ALUMNI AWARD

Mrs. Ashley Leonard Mc Cormack 2014 Young Alumni Award

Ashley Leonard McCormack earned her B.S. degree in Apparel Studies in 2003 from the University of Arkansas, where she served as president of the Apparel Merchandising Club. She began her career at Dillard's corporate offices in their product development department, where she served as associate and technical designer for their private label sportswear and outerwear lines. In 2004, she relocated to New York City and has spent the last decade as a designer for Kenneth Cole outerwear through G-III Apparel Group. Since 2009, she has designed the Sundance Film Festival volunteer jackets, which are donated on behalf of Kenneth Cole to all Sundance volunteers to wear during the festival. Her designs and presentations have been used for brands such as Urban Outfitters, Sears, Wet Seal, K-Mart, Wal-Mart and Express. McCormack is a volunteer instructor at New England School for Fashion Design, mentoring students in fashion illustration and sewing. ## COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

Dr. Melody B. Musgrove

Dr. Melody Musgrove grew up in Mississippi, the child of public school teachers. She worked as a classroom teacher, school administrator, district special education director and assistant superintendent before serving as State Director of Special Education for the Mississippi Department of Education until January, 2007. She then moved to the private sector as Director of Business Development for LRP Publications, the nation's leading publisher of legal and regulatory guidance for educators.

Dr. Musgrove was selected by the White House to be Director of the Office of Special Education Programs (OSEP) for the U.S. Department of Education, and assumed the role in August of 2010. OSEP is responsible for providing leadership to the early intervention and educational agencies serving our nation's 6.7 million infants, toddlers, children and youth under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA).

Dr. Musgrove's career is distinguished by her commitment to collaborative frameworks that find creative solutions to difficult educational problems. She is focused on improving outcomes for all children, and experienced in using data to influence systemic improvement decisions. Since becoming director, Dr. Musgrove has been leading OSEP staff through a thoughtful process, in collaboration with stakeholder groups, to change the way OSEP works and to shift, as Secretary Arne Duncan has said, "from a compliance-driven bureaucracy to an engine of innovation" that is focused on improving results for children and families.

Melody and her husband, Ronnie, have four children ranging in age from 25 to 31, all of whom graduated from Mississippi's public schools and universities. To their great delight, Melody and Ronnie also have a grandchild, Evelyn, who is three years old. The Musgrove family also includes a rescued shelter dog named Noah. Melody and her husband divide their time between homes in Madison, Mississippi, and Washington, DC.

She is married to Page Summers who is also pursuing his degree at the University of Arkansas. Heather received the Hotz Award both her Sophomore and Junior years. Senior Scholar Alexandra Cousin is the daughter of Tom and Anne Cousin from Overland Park, Kansas. She is earning her Bachelor of Science in Kinesiology (Pre-professional) with a minor in Spanish. Alexandra plans to attend the University of Kansas Medical Center in Kansas City to obtain a doctorate in Physical Therapy.

Lauren will be moving to Fort Rucker, Alabama, with her husband Keith while he attends fight school. They plan to return to Northwest Arkansas the following year where she hopes to teach long-term.

Senior Scholar Susan White, a Childhood Education major from North Little Rock, resides in Fayetteville with her husband, Richard, and her son, Simon. Her love of theatre inspired her to live in New York City for almost a decade, where she worked for the Broadway Classroom program. Upon completion of her Master of Arts in Teaching, Susan hopes to use music, movement, and drama to educate students in a Northwest Arkansas elementary classroom.

Chair, Department of Supply Chain Management

GUEST SPEAKER

Donna Cochran Mc Larly BSBA with honors, '68 Co-founder/Board Co-chair Emeritus Vital Voices Global Partnership

Donna Cochran McLarty, co-founder and board co-chair emeritus of Vital Voices Global Partnership, is the 2014 commencement speaker for the Sam M. Walton College of Business.

McLarty is an advocate for worldwide efforts to support women, children, and families—and a champion of international education, cultural diplomacy, and interfaith dialogue. She is a co-founder, board co-chair emeritus, and member of the Executive Committee of Vital Voices Global Partnership, a non-governmental organization that identifies and invests in extraordinary women around the world.

At the University of Arkansas, McLarty is a member of the Board of Advisors. Together with her husband, Thomas F. McLarty, III, she and her family have created the McLarty Global Fellowship program to provide students with opportunities for interdisciplinary learning and research at organizations such as Vital Voices and the Georgetown Institute for Women, Peace, and Security.

As a member of the Board of Trustees of The Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts, she helped create the AmericArtes Festival and co-chaired The Kennedy Center Honors. Currently, she serves on the International Committee on the Arts.

McLarty co-chairs the Global Initiatives Council at Wesley Theological Seminary and is a Trustee of The World Conference of Religions for Peace.

In her home state of Arkansas, McLarty helped create and chaired the Centers for Youth and Families, co-chaired the Arkansas Commission for Juvenile Justice with then-First Lady of Arkansas Hillary Clinton, and served on the boards of the Arkansas Art Center, the Arts in Education program, and the Airport Commission. She has been recognized with the Arkansas Community Service Award, the American Gas Association Humanitarian Award, and—together with her husband—the NCCJ (National Conference for Community and Justice) Humanitarian Award.
